

I believe that the FCC should not implement any changes in Indiana to the Telephone Privacy Law which now exists. I am receiving less unwanted telephone calls now because of this Indiana Privacy Law which has been in effect and appreciate the protection it has given to me.